ACCELERATOR
PROGRAM

Las Vegas, USA

Barcelona, Spain

Marijuana Accelerator is positioned as one of North America's and Europe's most exciting marijuana tech + media accelerators. We look for startups working on big, world-changing, continent-shifting ideas.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

In our intensive 14 week program, our experienced team surround you with the best people, advice and environment possible, and actively work with you to make your startup a success.

You'll get investment, a collaborative environment, peers that are as hungry and hard-working as you, and access to our close-knit network of startups, mentors, investors and trusted advisors who will always fight your startup's corner.

PROGRAM STRUCTURE

The 14-week accelerator program is broken down into 3 phases:

Discover

This phase forces your startup to justify assumptions, prove market viability and build a clear proposition. This is achieved through the help of our amazing mentors

Validate & Build

This phase focuses on building your product and growing customer interest. Product launch will be achieved in this phase and the mentors' networks used to arrange partnerships and sales opportunities.

Invest & Grow

This phase pulls together all the elements and gets your startup investment ready. Lawyers, accountants and pitch trainers will all be available to prepare your startup for Demo Day.

JEFF ROBINSON

Co-Founder & Managing Director

Jeff Robinson

*Internet VC - Focus: Artificial Intelligence +
Real Time Platforms - Author - Mentor - Adviser
- Igniting the Startup Community Globally*

His thoughts on MJ Accelerator Program

"There is clearly a need for what we are offering! There is so much excitement around the marijuana industry with little focus getting good products/services to market. It's my goal to focus this excitement into developing real companies."

Jeff Robinson is an investor and observer of the capital markets with over 30 years of experience. His area of focus for the last decade has been real time platforms and price discovery using Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning.

Jeff is a seasoned entrepreneur. In 2008 he co-authored a provisional patent for a new method for funding startups using a real time platform. He has taken part in many ventures globally, and is now the CEO of Internet Advisory Corporation and Internet Bull Report. He also consults to startups, grownups and restarts, and sits on the board of many small-to-medium size companies. Jeff has frequently lectured at elite business schools like IESE and ESADE and mentored at renowned accelerators like the MIT/Stanford Venture Lab and Wayra. As well, he is the founder of Global Internet Startups one of the largest groups globally to foster and nurture entrepreneurship around the world.
